

Developmental Rubric German

Learning Area:

Writing

Developmental Progression

		Level 7	Level 8	Level 9	Level 10
Indicators	1 Use of Case	Uses the nominative case to form simple sentences. Uses accusative case for specific units.	Uses nominative and accusative cases in creating sentences.	Uses nominative, accusative and dative cases.	Creates and builds sentences using correct nominative, accusative and dative case; identifies use of genitive case.
	2 Responses	Creates appropriate responses to questions. Writes simple sentences about themselves and others from a word bank.	Draws from modelled language to produce responses. Uses simple expressions in response to questioning.	Creates and shares responses to explain, analyse or discuss a unit under investigation.	Articulates complex grammar. Develops responses using adverbs, adverbial phrases and articles.
	3 Context (Purpose and Audience) formal and informal	Identifies context of formal and information audience. Uses Sie and du in appropriate situations.	Explains how to conjugate Sie and du for cases. Uses: dich, sich, ihnen, dir.	Includes appropriate salutation when letter writing and in greetings. Considers how to close a letter according to formality of text.	Structures a piece of writing targeting an audience through language style.
	4 Grammatical requirements (Structures – Umlaut, Capital for nouns)	Knows to capitalize all nouns. Changes singular to plural by adding an ending. Places the verb as the second “idea” in a sentence.	Creates sentences using apostrophes and colloquial language. Uses compound and irregular verbs. Uses “Time, Manner, Place” to decide word order.	Uses past and present tenses, subordinate clauses, prepositions. Places auxiliary verb at end of sentence when using modal verbs.	Uses all language components when writing using formal and informal language.
	5 Complexity of Texts	Produces German words in their text from a word bank.	Produces German words from own investigation.	Synthesizes previous unit work to produce compound words.	Uses conjunctions and other grammatical terms to enhance text.